

Statement on Corporate Governance

Pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of the Listing Requirements of the Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad

The Board of Directors of Malayan Flour Mills Berhad recognizes that the practice of good corporate governance in conducting the business and affairs of the Group with integrity, transparency and professionalism are key components for the Group's continued growth and success. The Board is committed to ensure that the highest standards on Corporate Governance are observed throughout the Group in the interest of the stakeholders and is unreservedly committed to applying the principles necessary to ensure that good governance is practiced in all of its business dealings.

The Board views the maintenance of high standards of corporate governance as a continuous process incorporating current developments from both within and outside the Country. The Board makes adjustments as may be appropriate and the overriding principle is to adopt the substance rather than the form, with the ultimate objective of enhancing the business processes and shareholder value.

This statement describes the approach that the Company has taken with respect to each of the key principles and the extent of its compliance with the best practices during the financial year.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Composition of the Board and Balance

The Board is led and managed by an experienced Board with a wide range of expertise. The Board is responsible for the Company in achieving the highest level of business conduct. Its duties and responsibilities included amongst others to establish long and medium terms strategic plans, approve annual budget, establish goals for management and monitor the achievement of these goals. The roles and functions of the Board including the executive and non-executive Directors are clearly defined in the Board Charter which regulates how business is to be conducted by the Board in accordance with the principles of good Corporate Governance.

The Company has a unitary Board, currently consisting of four (4) Executive Directors and five (5) Non-Executive Directors of whom five (5) are Independent and thus obtaining the desired level of objectivity and independence in Board deliberations and decision making. The Board composition also complies with the Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad which require a minimum of 2 or 1/3 of the Board to be independent directors. A brief profile of each director is presented on pages 5 to 9 of this Annual Report.

There is a clear division of responsibility between the Chairman and the Managing Director to ensure that there is a balance of power and authority, such that no one individual has unfettered powers of decision-making. The Chairman is responsible for ensuring Board effectiveness and conduct whilst the Managing Director is responsible for implementing the policies and decisions of the Board, overseeing the operations as well as coordinating the development and implementation of business and corporate strategies.

The presence of the Independent Non-Executive Directors fulfills a pivotal role in corporate accountability and provides unbiased, objective and independent view, advice and judgement to the decision making process of the Board.

Appointment and Re-election of Directors

The procedures for appointments to the Board are formal and transparent. The Nomination Committee is responsible for making recommendations for any appointments to the Board by considering the mix of skills, knowledge, expertise and experience which the Director(s) brings to the Board. For the position of independent non-executive director, the Nomination Committee also evaluates the candidate's calibre, credibility and necessary skill and experience to bring an independent judgement and view to matters under consideration. Any new nomination received is forwarded to the Board for assessment and endorsement.

The Company's Articles of Association provide that all Directors are subject to election by the shareholders at the next Annual General Meeting subsequent to their appointment.

In respect of the re-election of Directors, the Article provides that at least one third or the nearest to one-third of the remaining Directors are subject to re-election by rotation at each Annual General Meeting and that all Directors are subject to re-election by rotation at least once in every three years.

Directors over seventy years old are required to submit themselves for re-appointment annually in accordance to Section 129(6) of the Companies Act, 1965.

Board Meetings

The Board meets at least five (5) times annually, with additional meetings being convened as and when necessary. The Board meetings are scheduled prior to the commencement of the financial year. The Board receives documents on matters requiring its consideration prior to and in advance of each meeting.

Minutes of proceedings and resolutions passed at each Board and Board Committees Meetings are kept in the statutory register at the registered office of the Company. In the event of a potential conflict of interest, the Director in such position will make a declaration to that effect as soon as practicable. The Director concerned will then abstain from any decision-making process in which he has an interest in.

During the year under review, seven (7) Board Meetings were held. The attendance of each Director at the Board meetings are as follows:-

Access to Advice and Information

In order for the Board to effectively discharge its duties and responsibilities, the Directors are provided with full, complete and unrestricted access to timely and accurate information. All Board and Committee members are provided with the agenda and reports relevant to the business of the meeting in advance so that the Directors have sufficient time to prepare and deliberate on the issues prior to the meeting.

Senior Management members may be invited to attend Board Meetings to provide the Board with their views and explanations on certain agenda items tabled to the Board, and to furnish their clarification on issues that may be raised by Directors.

In furtherance of their duties, the Directors have access to the advice and services of the Company Secretary, who is responsible for ensuring that Board Meeting procedures are followed and that applicable rules and regulations are complied with. In addition, the Directors may take independent advice if necessary at the Company's expense.

Directors' Continuing Development

On appointment, all new Directors in particular the Non-Executive Directors will have the benefit of an induction programme aimed at deepening their understanding of the Company and the business environment and markets in which the Company operates.

Recognising the ever increasing demands of their role, the Directors of the Company have continued to attend and participate in various programmes which they have individually or collectively considered as relevant for them to keep abreast with the changes in regulations and trends in the business practices, environment and markets.

From time to time, the Board will also be updated on the companies and securities legislations and other relevant rules and regulations at the Board meetings, in order to acquaint them with the latest developments in these areas.

For the year under review, all the Directors attended various appropriate seminars, conferences, workshop and courses covering accounting, tax, finance, management, leadership, corporate governance, regulatory and industry developments.

RELATIONSHIP WITH SHAREHOLDERS AND INVESTORS

The Board recognises the importance of maintaining an effective communication with the shareholders and the general public. All shareholders are encouraged to attend the Company's Annual General Meeting ("AGM") and to participate in the proceedings. Shareholders' suggestions received during Annual General Meetings are reviewed and considered for implementation wherever possible. Every opportunity is given to the shareholders to ask questions and seek clarification on the business and performance of the Company. Where it is not possible to provide immediate answers, the Chairman will undertake to furnish the shareholder with a written reply after the AGM.

The timely release of quarterly financial results, the issue of the Company's Annual Reports and the Company's website provide regular information on the state of affairs of the Group. These, together with the announcements to the Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad on material information and corporate proposals are the principal channels for dissemination of information to its investors, stakeholders and the public generally.

ACCOUNTABILITY AND AUDIT

Financial Reporting

The Directors take responsibility for presenting a balanced and objective assessment of the Group's financial performance and prospects primarily through the quarterly and annual financial announcements of results. In addition, the Chairman's statement and review of operations and corporate developments are also contained in this Annual Report to the shareholders.

The Group's financial statements are prepared in accordance with the requirements of the applicable approved accounting standards in Malaysia and the provisions of the Companies Act, 1965. Efforts are made to ensure that in presenting the financial statements, the appropriate accounting policies, consistently applied and supported by reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates are being used.

Internal Control

The Group has in place a sound system of internal control which covers not only financial controls but also operational, compliance and risk management. The system of internal control provides reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatements, losses and fraud.

The Statement on Internal Control as set out on pages 31 and 32 of this Annual Report provides an overview of the state of internal controls within the Group.

Relationship with Auditors

The Company through the Audit Committee has an appropriate and transparent relationship with the external auditors. The Audit Committee reviews issues of accounting policies and presentation for external financial reporting, monitors the work of the internal audit function and ensures an objective and professional relationship is maintained with the external auditors. The Audit Committee has full access to both the Internal and External Auditors who, in turn, have access at all times to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.
